PLAINSONG & MEDIÆVAL MUSIC SOCIETY,
NASHDOM ABBEY, BURNHAM, BUCKS

founded 1888.

This joint Catalogue of the Publications of St. Mary's Press, Wantage, and of the Plainsong and Mediæval Music Society, has been compiled in answer to request, in order to facilitate the purchase of music by Choirmasters and others.

Orders should be sent to the respective addresses, as shown at the foot of each page: but combined orders can be executed, for convenience, from either house. A remittance, including postage, should be sent whenever possible, to save the expense of booking.

LATIN CHURCH MUSIC

Important Notice.

The Plainsong & Mediæval Music Society has secured the sole distributing rights, for the United Kingdom and Ireland, of a new impression by Dessain of Malines, of the

in which the instructive and valuable Official Preface is now for the first time translated into English.

This edition, which bears the Imprimatur of the Archdiocese of Westminster, should meet with wide acceptance; and it is confidently expected that before long it will be the standard book used by the Latin choirs in this country.

CLOTH BOUND, price (only) 4/-

(With Benedictine Supplement, price 5/-)

SECTION V

FACSIMILES, Etc.

ANTIPHONALE SARISBURIENSE. A reproduction in collotype (over 700 pages) of a 13th century English Antiphoner. With Introduction and Index by the Rt. Rev. W. H. Frere, C.R., D.D., Bishop of Truro. In parts, price £15 15s. Bound in four volumes, price £21 the set.

INTRODUCTION TO THE ANTIPHONALE SARISBURIENSE, reprinted from the above and bound in boards, scarlet cloth back. Price 25/-.

GRADUALE SARISBURIENSE. Uniform with the above, also with Introduction and Index by Dr. Frere. Price £5 5s. (unbound). Bound in one volume, Legal buckram, £6 6s.; Half Leather, £7 7s.

INTRODUCTION TO THE GRADUALE SARISBURIENSE, reprinted from the above and bound in scarlet cloth. Price 15/-

PARS ANTIPHONARII. A facsimile of a neumatic MS. of the 11th century, from Durham Chapter Library. Introduction, with 48 pages of collotype. Price £2 2s.

SONGS AND MADRIGALS of the 15th century, containing fourteen specimens, with facsimiles and rules for translating the music into modern notation. Bound in scarlet cloth. Price £1 5s.

EARLY ENGLISH HARMONY, from the 10th to the 15th century. Vol. I containing 60 collotype plates of music from the time of Ethelred of Winchester down to John Dunstable. Selected, with short notes, by the late Prof. H. E. Wooldridge. Vol. II containing translations into modern notation, with bibliographical and other notes by the Secretary. Bound uniform in scarlet cloth. Price £3 3s. Vol. I alone, 25/-. Vol. II alone, £2 2s.

All the above works are uniform in size, being Imperial Quartos, 15 × 11 inches. The collotypes are printed on thick paper, as are the Introductions, with the exception of that of the ANTIPHONALE SARISBURIENSE.

PIAE CANTIONES is Medium Octavo size, bound in scarlet cloth. It is an edition by the Rev. G. R. Woodward, M.A., Mus. Doc., of the Collection of Swedish Church and School Songs made by Theodoric of Nyland, and published in 1582. Copious notes are appended. Price 15/-.

SUBSCRIBING MEMBERS' ANNUAL VOLUMES

(1927.) MISSA 'O QUAM SUAVIS.' By an anonymous English Author, c. 1500. (Cambridge University Library, MS. Nn. vi. 46.) This work is a very fine and typical example of the early Tudor Mass, of vast dimensions, and constructed on a Plain-chant Canto Fermo. The Tenor part (in the more important sections) is expressed in a riddling musical notation, with enigmatical Latin directions intended as a clue to their solution. These are supplied in detail in the Introduction to the work. With two facsimile pages. Edited by H. B. COLLINS, Mus. Bac. (Organist of the Oratory, Birmingham). Royal Quarto, full scarlet cloth, gilt top. Price 25/-.

"A first-class contribution to our knowledge of sacred polyphony." (The Universe.)

"An important acquisition . . . . finely produced." (The Times.)

"These thirty large pages [the Introduction] of explanatory notes and illustrations are, in fact, a first-class treatise on a subject at once abstruse and fascinating." (The Musical Times.)

"The music is worth the trouble spent on it . . . . the counterpoint is rich, and the composer has a good sense of climax." (Musical Opinion.)

"Ce maître inconnu émerveille par sa diversité." (Revue de Musicologie.)

(1928.) WORCESTER MEDIÆVAL HARMONY. With Facsimiles, Transcriptions, Notes, and a full Introduction. By the Rev. DOM ANSELM HUGHES, O.S.B., M.A. Preface by Sir Ivor Atkins, Mus. Doc., F.S.A. Royal Quarto, full scarlet cloth. Price 25/-.

"This magnificent volume. . . . These musical fragments are of great historical and artistic value." (Church Times.)

"A masterly critical edition. . . . . Some of the numbers in this volume have a strange and compelling beauty." (Guardian.)

"This book is probably the most valuable of its kind that has appeared for many years. . . . A masterly summing up . . . justifies its acquisition." (Musical Opinion.)

"Le résultats de ce labeur n'intéressent pas seulements les chercheurs anglais mais tous ceux qui, sur le continent, tentent d'obtenir une vue approchée de l'évolution musicale à cette époque." (Revue de Musicologie.)

"Far more resourceful than the Parisian works as specimens of early polyphony. . . . A balanced shapeliness and a gracious line." (The Times.)

(1930.) THE OLD HALL MANUSCRIPT. Transcribed and annotated, with facsimiles, by the Rev. A. RAMSBOTHAM. The Old Hall MS. is one of the most valuable documents of English Musical History. It contains a large selection of works by composers of the reign of Henry VI for St. George's Chapel, Windsor. Its publication, awaited by scholars for a generation, will be an event of the greatest importance.

The Society is founded for purely antiquarian purposes, with the following objects :—

1. To be a centre of information in England for students of Plainsong and Mediæval Music, and a means of communication between them and those of other countries.
2. To publish facsimiles of important MSS., translations of foreign works on the subject, adaptations of Plainsong to English words, and such other works as may be desirable.
3. To form a catalogue of all Plainsong and Measured Music in England, dating not later than the middle of the sixteenth century.
4. To form a thoroughly proficient Choir of limited numbers, with which to give illustrations of Plainsong and Mediæval Music.

Hon. Secretary and Treasurer:

THE REV. DOM ANSELM HUGHES, O.S.B., Nashdom Abbey, Burnham, Bucks.

The subscription for a Life Member is £10 and for Members is £1 per annum, entitling them to all publications gratis.
